Former Assemblyman Gives Inside History of Attempt to Divide County

ORANGE, Aug. 18.—Sound reasoning and logic, backed up in earnest presentation, sent home to an audience at Campbell's Opera House last night the vast importance of sending Gov. Hiram W. Johnson to the United States Senate.

Bishop gave some inside history of the attempt made to divide Orange county when he was assemblyman his first term. He said it was a move meant to make him vote for a railroad measure.

The speakers were Lieut. Gov. W. D. Stephens of Los Angeles, former congressman, recently appointed as lieutenant governor, the man who will become governor when Gov. Johnson goes to the federal senate, and Attorney Clyde Bishop of Santa Ana. S. M. Craddock presided. He stated that Rev. Speer, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Orange, who was chosen as chairman, was in San Francisco. He said that Rev. Speer was unreservedly for Gov. Johnson for senator.

The first speaker was Attorney Bishop, who was introduced as a man who had not always been on the same side of the fence as Gov. Johnson but who was for Johnson for the Republican nomination for senator because he considered Gov. Johnson a big man for the place.

Ally of People

"The Republican party was born to make men free," said Bishop. "Secure in our success, however, the average man neglected his duties as a citizen, and the party came to worship the gods of gold, and a great storm came. That convinced me anew that no party that does not ally with the people can long live."

"Speaking solely as a Republican, the one controlling influence now must be unity of action. If divided, we fall. To those who went out of the party, I have the greatest respect for their sincerity. To those of us who thought better to remain, we claim the same respect. I remain, we claim the same respect. I believed that within its confines was that moral fiber to correct the error."

"I am for Hiram Johnson for the Republican nomination for United States senator. In 1910 he pledged to the people that he would do certain things. I was in the Assembly when the Governor made the declaration that he would eliminate every private interest from the state government. Never before in twenty years had a chief executive of this state dared to make that statement."

"Not in a generation has the United States Senate represented the true thought of the people."

"I want to see some of these things that Governor Johnson has written upon the statute books of California written in a broad sense upon the statute books of the nation."

Bishop said that any person who honestly advocated doing away with the Railroad Commission had no knowledge of the value of that commission.

Inside History

"When I was in the state legislature the first time," said he, "I thought and acted independently. There came before the legislature an iniquitous railroad measure known as the reciprocal demurrage bill, one that was unfair to the people. I was against that measure. What did they do? They introduced a bill to divide this county, to take a strip from it and put it in Los Angeles county. Why? Because they could either force me to sacrifice my county or stand and take the railroad program."

"You can't do that sort of thing in the state legislature today, for a railroad commission stands between the people and corporate greed."

"I am for Hughes and Fairbanks. For senator, I am for Johnson for the Republican nomination because he is the best man seeking that nomination. For congress, I am for C. C. Harbison. He is entitled to the primaries and in November I am for S. C. Evans for state senator and J. C. Burke for assemblyman. Failure to return Burke to the assembly would be an injury to this county."

Praises Hughes

In his address Lieut. Gov. Stephens praised Charles E. Hughes.

"He is a splendid man and a great standard bearer," said he. "I know

Paralysis Spreads
in Chicago; Eighty Cases This Month

Specialist Says Situation Gravest In Years; Sixty Are Quarantined

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Infantile paralysis is increasing in Chicago largely. Eighty known cases were reported this month. The Health Department today denied that the plague is epidemic.

At the county hospital it was admitted that sixty-one cases of paralysis had been quarantined and preparation being made to receive a much greater number.

"The situation is the gravest in years," Dr. H. B. Thomas, paralysis specialist, said.

To Keep Close Watch
WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Health authorities here, forty states, assembled in response to a general call by the United States Public Health Service, today bound themselves to a "closer surveillance" of infantile paralysis cases and voted to require health certificates of all under 16 in interstate travel.

HUGHES' ABILITY
AS HARMONIZER
IN CAL. TAXED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—Chas. E. Hughes replied to a committee headed by Mayor Rolph when Republican leaders met Hughes on his arrival shortly after noon and escorted him to the Palace Hotel.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 18.—Charles E. Hughes' capacity as a harmonizer today appeared likely to be taxed to its fullest extent.

No sooner had the Republican presidential candidate reached the boundary line of California than the bitter factional struggle was introduced to him.

Because the Progressives, one of the factions, assert that there is a menace to the Republican presidential cause in the division, it appeared likely that the nominee would spend much of his afternoon today spreading the balm of harmony on the California state leaders.

On the surface of the division situation there is apparently an effort by both factions to assume proprietorship of the candidate.

Progressive Republicans claim that the "regulars," headed by National Committeeman William H. Crocker, have frozen out the Johnson type of Progressive Republicans and have snubbed Governor Johnson by suggesting that he not appear at tonight's meeting. The "regulars" deny this assertion. They point to the big delegation of Progressives that has been invited to occupy platform seats tonight.

Mrs. Hughes is qualifying as an expert handshaker, rivaling her husband. At one brief stop she leaned forward to grasp the hand of a bearded old man, who remarked, "plenty loud enough for her husband to hear: 'Go it, Mrs. Hughes; don't reply entirely on the old man.'"

MRS. MARY O'DONOVAN
ROSSA DIES IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Mary O'Donovan Rossa, 70, is dead today at her home, No. 622 West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street. She was the widow of the Irish patriot.

Mrs. Rossa was the third wife of O'Donovan Rossa and the companion of his prison years, his exile and later career. When the noted leader died in State Island, June, 1915, she accompanied the body to Ireland for burial.

STORY ABOUT HOOSIER
POET TOLD BY FRIEND

CLEVELAND, Aug. 18.—Robert McLaughlin, playwright, who visited James Whitcomb Riley at his home in Indianapolis shortly before the Hoosier poet's death, tells the following:

"A young woman hustled up and introduced herself to Mr. Riley at Palm Beach."

"Oh, Mr. Riley," she said, "I enjoy your poems so much. I'm told you get $5 a word for them. Isn't it just grand to make so much money?"

"Isn't it," agreed the poet, "but think how many days I have to sit around without selling a single word."

APPROPRIATIONS BUREAU DECLARES
BILL FOR ARMY
GETS VETO BY PRESIDENT

Clause Covering Retired Officers Is Objected to By Wilson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—President Wilson today vetoed the Army Appropriations bill. The President objected to the provision in the bill covering the status of officers on the retired list, about whom there has been constant strife. The provision in the bill exempted retired officers from liability to service and discipline under the Articles of War.

Within an hour after the veto reached the house Chairman Hay introduced the measure minus mention of the Articles of War which caused the veto.

The President's veto cites a long list to show that retired army officers are not mere pensioners from whom no further service is expected.

In part the President's veto read: "Convinced as I am of the unwisdom of this provision and of its baneful effect on the discipline of the army, and doubting as I do the power of Congress wholly to exempt retired officers from the control of the President and while declaring them to be part of the Regular Army, I am constrained to return this bill without my approval."

PHILIPPINE BILL IS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The Philippine bill, granting increased independence, today passed the House by a vote of 34 to 29. It is now ready for the President's signature.

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 18.—The local Western Union office reported that wires between San Antonio and Brownsville went out at 2 p. m. The interruption is due to the Galveston hurricane striking the coast an hour earlier than schedule.

HOUSTON, Aug. 18.—Steam railroads and interurban lines today were running special trains all day, carrying persons to the mainland as a result of a slight rise in tide at the Galveston sea wall. A storm is due to strike Galveston late this afternoon.

CALIFORNIA'S TOTAL
ASSETS $120,000,000

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 18.—Property actually owned by the State of California, cash in the vaults of the state treasurer and his bond investments, total about $120,000,000, according to figures provided by Edwin F. Smith, state "property man."

Wharves and buildings at San Francisco are the largest individual property asset of the state. Other valuable properties are the University of California and the state capitol grounds here.

PACIFIC MAIL LINE
RESUMES ORIENT RUN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—The Pacific Mail Steamship Company will resume its Oriental passenger service tomorrow when the oil-burning, 10,000-ton steamer "Ecuador" gets under way from here to Honolulu, Yokohama, Kobe, Shanghai, Manila and Hong Kong.

The Pacific Mail company quit the trans-Pacific trade when the seamen's law became effective, on the theory that the law imposed too many hardships on the steamships on the steamship companies for the trade to be a paying proposition. But with freight bringing $20 a ton because of the war shortage of ships the company was soon reorganized.

As the new ships are oil burners they do away with the picturesque but uncomfortable process of taking on coal at Oriental ports. Travelers probably will be glad to change the romance of this spectacle for the more prosaic act of taking oil. Oil is taken in much as water. A long procession of Orientals used to load the ships with coal from handbaskets, also loading the passengers' eyes, ears, noses, throats and luggage with a lot of coal dust.

BUREAU DECLARES
OPPONENTS OF KETTNER HAVE HIM ON RUN

Says Fight Is Made on Ground That Congressman Is Not a Democrat

The man who threw the monkey-wrench into the Kettner machinery at San Diego is in Santa Ana today.

His name is Charles E. Burch. He is an attorney at San Diego and is chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee.

"We have Kettner on the run," declared he. "Charles C. Crouch, dry Democrat and a real Democrat, too, is going to beat William Kettner for the Democratic nomination."

It was Burch who prepared a resolution that was signed by fifteen out of twenty members of the San Diego committee. That resolution occupied several scathing paragraphs in condemnation of Kettner.

He came back from Washington, D. C., with the information that Kettner would not recommend Roy, the choice of the Democratic County Central Committee, for postmaster at San Diego. It was Burch who reported that Kettner had told him that he was saving the San Diego post office for himself in case he was defeated for re-election.

"That San Diego post office affair was really the culmination of a long line of incidents," said Burch. "Taking all these incidents together, a course of treatment toward the up-building of the Democratic party in our county was pursued that convinced us that Kettner was building up a Kettner machine for Kettner instead of assisting in building up the Democratic party."

"On what ground are you making your fight against Kettner for the Democratic nomination?" was asked of Burch.

Right there was where Burch was found absolutely at home. He expressed himself directly and without hesitation.

"First, because Kettner is not a Democrat," declared he. "He is what I call a renegade Democrat, a Democrat for revenue only. I openly accuse him of putting in a lot of time at Washington trying to sell John D. Spreckels' real estate to the government. He tried to get through the sale of North Island, claimed by Spreckels, to the government for $2,000,000. When I was in Washington I heard a prominent official say that the government has a claim to the title to that island, and it ought to go into court and take it."

"In San Diego, Kettner works with the Spreckels crowd."

"We are fighting Kettner because he is not a Wilson Democrat. In all the winning and dining that has been done at San Diego, never once has Kettner had a word of praise for President Wilson. Down at San Diego today two sets of Democrats are running for central committee. One set call themselves Kettner Democrats. We tell them we are glad to have them class themselves, for we are Wilson Democrats."

"C. C. Crouch is going to be the Democratic nominee for Congress. He is going to beat Kettner right in San Diego 1900 votes. The condition that exists at San Diego in relation to Kettner's treatment of the Democratic organization exists in El Centro and San Bernardino."

"I am convinced that this district is not going to send a wet man back to Congress. As a Democrat, I want to see a Democrat elected. I am absolutely convinced that if Kettner gets the Democratic nomination that Harbison will be elected, for Harbison is dry, and Kettner is wet. Crouch is dry, just as dry as he can be. He can be elected, while Kettner cannot."

FOR HUGHES SPEECH
IN S. A. ON MONDAY

Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for President of the United States, will speak in Santa Ana at 5:20 o'clock next Monday afternoon, Aug. 21.

The definite time for the address was received today by County Clerk W. B. Williams from W. W. Mines of Los Angeles, who has charge of the details of the nominee's tour in Southern California.

While it had been definitely learned that Mr. Hughes would speak here Monday, it was not known certainly until today that the hour would be at 5:20 in the afternoon.

The nominee and his party will arrive from San Diego at 5:20 o'clock. He may be met by a committee of Santa Anans at San Juan Capistrano or some other point on the way. That is a detail that has not yet been arranged.

Walter Eden, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, will present Justice Hughes to the crowd that will gather to hear him. There will be no introductory address, as it is desired to give as much time as possible to Mr. Hughes' address.

The stop in Santa Ana will be for fifteen minutes only. The address here will be the only one that will be made by Mr. Hughes in this county. The address will be delivered from the rear of the observation car.

HUGHES FOR PRESIDENT, SLOGAN
SUFFRAGIST IS URGING COUNTY SOCIAL CLUBS TO ADOPT

Mrs. J. D. Thomas, wife of Dr. president of the Woman's Suffrage Society of the County of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the oldest suffrage organization in the United States.

When the club was organized much fun was poked at it, but it kept on growing. Susan B. Anthony taking a great interest in it. Mrs. Thomas marched in three of the big parades, in New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

She told the women present yesterday, in no uncertain terms, how the suffragists were treated and insulted in Washington, when they had a big parade the day before President Wilson was inaugurated.

Says Details Hidden
Mrs. Thomas says that very little detail appeared in the papers at the time, but she stated that the women were spat upon and insulted all along the line of march, their ranks being broken into by ruffians many times.

Chief of Police Sylvester stated that he was unable to control the mob, "but," said Mrs. Thomas, "the next day when the inaugural parade was in progress, everything was in apple-pie order."

Mrs. Thomas says that the women of California do not realize what a terrific fight eastern women are waging to get their rights.

Wilson's Proposal For Basic Eight-hour Day Agreed To By Workers

Heads of Systems Tell Wilson Matters In the Hands of Their Managers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Paralysis of the railroads of the United States through a strike of 400,000 trainmen loomed when the 640 representatives of the employees this afternoon voted to accept President Wilson's proposal of a basic eight-hour day and settlement of side issues by a special commission and the thirty-one presidents of the railroads, summoned to Washington yesterday by the President, departed without having reached an agreement.

The presidents of the railroads left the White House determined, they said, not to accept the proposal by President Wilson to avert such a "national calamity."

Fifteen minutes later the representatives of the railroad workers announced that they had voted to accept the President's proposal.

The executives contend and with bitterness that the President is arbitrarily trying to force upon them the demand of the railroads for an eight-hour working day before the feasibility of its application to the railroads has been investigated.

The President spoke only briefly after putting up to the men his proposition for a settlement.

The President was in the green room, one of the reception rooms, when the presidents arrived.

President Holden, spokesman for the railway presidents, presented each of his colleagues to the President.

After shaking the hands of all the President indicated that he was ready to begin the conference.

Holden opened the session by stating that the railroad executives approved of everything in full done by the railroad managers in whom they had vested powers of attorney.

If the railroad presidents and managers persist in their refusal to meet President Wilson's strike settlement plan the President will call on the boards of the country's big systems it was learned reliably.

Talk of compulsory arbitration as a last means of holding off the railroad strike was heard. Senators believe that Congress should force arbitration.

Thirty-one railroad presidents entered the White House at 2 p. m. Their entrance was in marked contrast to that of the 640 employees yesterday, who marched four abreast. Most of the executives came in automobiles and taxis.

President Wilson today was asked by the heads of the railway brotherhoods to modify the proposal he submitted to the 640 members of the general committee as a basis for the settlement of the dispute. The request was made through Judge Chambers of the Federal Mediation Board. It is understood to suggest that the President fix some method whereby there could be no excessive overtime under the eight-hour day scheme.

During the morning the President prepared a statement for the people of the country outlining the details of the course he pursued in attempting to bring about a settlement of the strike. He planned to make this public after his conference with the railroad presidents this afternoon. When he had received an answer from both sides to his proposition he planned to make public the result of his efforts.

130 MILLION U. S. BOND ISSUE IS PROPOSED BY SENATORS

Mexico Situation Makes More Funds Necessary, Says Finance Report

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—A bond issue of $130,000,000 to meet extraordinary government expenditures due to the Mexican situation was unexpectedly recommended to Congress last night by majority members of the Senate finance committee, with the concurrence of the Treasury Department. fray the expense of operations in the Mexican emergency, if conditions on the border continue as they are now, after December 31, 1916.

Shortage in Sight

The $130,000,000 to be provided by the proposed bond issue, the report says, will meet Mexican expenditures only until the end of this calendar year.

Accompanying the finance committee majority's report submitted by Senator Simmons was a general statement from the Treasury Department estimating disbursements for the fiscal year 1917 at $1,126,243,000 and receipts, $762,000,000.

"The total appropriations for the fiscal year 1917, exclusive of these carried in the so-called shipping bill, which is to be defrayed by the issuance of Panama bonds, will exceed the appropriations for the fiscal year 1916 by about $469,000,000," says the report.

Due to Preparedness

"This increase is represented principally by $167,000,000 additional amount appropriated for the navy, $166,000,000 additional amount appropriated for the army, $20,000,000 additional amount appropriated for fortifications, $11,000,000 for deficiency appropriations—about $35,000,000 of which is due to the Mexican situation and increased requirements for the army and navy—and $20,000,000 for a nitrate plant, which is a preparedness appropriation. The increase in the appropriations for the fiscal year, other than for these purposes, is not beyond the normal increase.

"But for the additional expenditures made necessary to defray the cost of preparedness, the increased revenue to be raised by this bill would not be necessary, and the estimated receipts under the present law would be considerably in excess of the estimated disbursements for the fiscal year 1917.

Roads, Credits

"In this connection attention is called to the fact that $21,000,000 of the normal increase for the present fiscal year represents the amount appropriated for rural credits and good roads.

"In a statement furnished your committee August 17, 1916, the Treasury Department estimated disbursements for the fiscal year 1917 at $1,126,243,000 and estimated receipts for 1917 at $762,000,000, making the excess of disbursements over receipts $364,243,000.

"This total includes appropriations amounting to about $130,000,000 to meet extraordinary expenses and disbursements incident to the Mexican situation, the mobilization of the National Guard and the operation of our troops along the border and into Mexico for the six months ending December 31, 1916. Should this condition exist beyond that time a further appropriation of $86,000,000 will be necessary.

Bond Issue Indorsed

"In the opinion of your committee, concurred in by the Treasury Department, this latter sum, namely, $130,000,000, should be financed by a bond issue. This would simply be following, not only the custom of this country, but of all other nations under similar circumstances. Deducting this amount from the estimated disbursements over receipts, the additional revenue required for the year 1917 would amount to $234,243,000.

"It is estimated that the bill as amended by your committee will raise $205,000,000, leaving a balance of $29,243,000 to be taken from the general fund of the treasury, which amounts on the 16th instant, excluding credits of disbursing officers, to $134,337,895.

"Your committee is advised by the Treasury Department that it is safe to estimate that this amount can be taken from the general fund without seriously embarrassing the treasury."

Third Special on Santa Fe to California Points Is Being Arranged by Agents

The Santa Fe Company is arranging for another farmers' excursion to Southern California, the date of the departure from the East to be November 10.

R. M. Roberts, agricultural and industrial agent of the company, was here this week to see Secretary Metzgar with reference to entertaining members of the excursion when it passes through here.

Metzgar was absent on his vacation, but will write the agent advising him that the local chamber will co-operate with the company.

The two excursions last year were very successful and Southern California gained valuable advertising as a result.

Some objection was made that the tourists were rushed too fast and were not given opportunity to investigate the conditions in the sections which they visited. They were driven in automobiles through various sections and only got a glimpse of the country. They had no chance to get out into the country, investigate lands and get information from those engaged in tilling the soil.

Secretary Metzgar will suggest that when the excursionists arrive here they be given time in which to get out into the orchards, the bean fields, the beet fields—where they either may listen to an address by a man versed in the different pursuits or meet the growers themselves and converse with them.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to continue in the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

SOIL TILLERS OF EAST COMING ON EXCURSION IN NOV.

Third Special on Santa Fe to California Points Is Being Arranged by Agents

The Santa Fe Company is arranging for another farmers' excursion to Southern California, the date of the departure from the East to be November 10.

R. M. Roberts, agricultural and industrial agent of the company, was here this week to see Secretary Metzgar with reference to entertaining members of the excursion when it passes through here.

Metzgar was absent on his vacation, but will write the agent advising him that the local chamber will co-operate with the company.

The two excursions last year were very successful and Southern California gained valuable advertising as a result.

Some objection was made that the tourists were rushed too fast and were not given opportunity to investigate the conditions in the sections which they visited. They were driven in automobiles through various sections and only got a glimpse of the country. They had no chance to get out into the country, investigate lands and get information from those engaged in tilling the soil.

MOTOR COP GETS THANKS FOR ARRESTING SPEEDER

"I want to thank you for your courtesy, but I want to say I don't think much of your town. You have a beautiful little city here and my husband has often told me that Santa Ana is one of the best cities in Southern California. You (meaning the city) will gain nothing by this."

This was the greeting extended motorcycle cop Cook by Mrs. Fred Osborne of Los Angeles, following the conviction in the city recorder's court of A. D. Redd, her chauffeur.

Osborne is a well known contractor in Los Angeles, being a member of the paving company known as the O. C. Construction Company, which has done work at Fullerton and Anaheim.

The Osbornes were passing through the city this morning en route to San Diego.

Cook caught the speed of the machine at 31 miles as it passed through the trap at Nineteenth street. The chauffeur and Mr. and Mrs. Wharton, who were also occupants of the car testified that the rate of speed was not to exceed eighteen miles. Perkins of Fresno, who was following in a Velle touring car, also declared that the machine could not have been traveling more than eighteen miles.

Cook produced his stop watch showing that the machine went through the trap in 7 1/5 seconds or at a 31 mile speed.

Mrs. Wharton said she took particular note of the sign on the North Main street bridge which says, "Welcome to Santa Ana." When the full import of the situation and the sign burst upon those who heard the remark, all broke out in a hearty laugh. The inference was that the people were welcome to the city to be fined and thus contribute to the support of the city.

"Cut and dried!" was the expression of some of the members of the party when Col. Heathman found the chauffeur guilty and imposed a fine of $10 or five days in jail.

Chauffeur Redd said he did not have the money to pay the fine and wouldn't pay it if he did have.

Wharton produced a big twenty dollar gold piece and divided it with the city recorder.

EDWARDS CAMPAIGNS IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY

J. S. Edwards of Redlands, Prohibition candidate for Congress from this district, who is also seeking the Republican nomination, at the August 29th primaries, spent the past two weeks conducting a campaign in Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties. He visited practically every town and village, seeing the voters and making open-air speeches.

This week he is in San Diego county, accompanied by Leo Clark, E. A. Rowell, his publicity agent, and Sergeant J. Sykes, trumpeter and cornetist. His automobile is adorned by two big banners announcing his Congressional aspirations.

E. A. Rowell, his publicity agent, says that Edwards is receiving letters from men of different political faith who say that they regard the dry issue as the paramount question in state and nation.

Edwards has now been twice over the entire district since his campaign opened. After the primaries he is planning to cover the whole district two or three times more clear up to election.

THIRSTY CATTLE GO THROUGH FENCE, AND CLOG UP A DITCH

ORANGE, Aug. 18.—A bunch of cattle belonging to the Anaheim Beef and Provision Company that was pastured on the Bixby ranch in the Santa Ana canyon, became crazed with thirst Wednesday and stampeded through the fence to reach water flowing in the main canal of the S. A. V. I. Company.

The herd piled into the ditch, causing an overflow of the water and causing it to perform queer antics in the smaller ditches farther down the valley. It is reported that some of the nearby orchards were flooded and badly trampled by the frenzied cattle.

'SPOT,' JITNEY DOG, VANISHES, GLOOM REIGNS

A ghastly pall of gloom has draped itself over the offices of the Crown Stage Line, 505 North Main street. Spot has disappeared.

Spot? Why, Spot is the Crown Stage mascot.

A fox terrier is Spot—and one of the most popular little canines in Santa Ana.

In fact, it may be that his popularity has been the cause of his disappearance. Some one evidently took more than an ordinary fancy to Spot and adopted him, 'tis thought.

Spot has been petted and pampered and fed sweets by hundreds in Santa Ana. Frequently Spot has been an over-night visitor, at local homes, where he has been made much over, as was most fitting, considering the terrier's winsomeness.

And now Spot is gone. He vanished five or six days ago.

All connected with the Crown Stage, especially the drivers, feel Spot's absence keenly. They would give almost anything to know where Spot is. They would not even stop at a special trip anywhere if they thought there was a chance of discovering the whereabouts of their pet.

E. L. Deacon says that Spot is by no means an ordinary fox terrier.

"Spot frequently took rides in stages," says Deacon, "and could tell a Crown stage from any other. He would go to Newport, Balboa and Anaheim and never get in an auto unless it was a Crown Stage. He seemed to know."

JAP FISHERMAN SAVES BOYS FROM DROWNING

Two boys, James Derwin, aged 12, and Charles Morgan, aged 14, were saved from drowning at Anaheim Landing by the prompt assistance rendered by a Jap fisherman. The lads were in a row boat and were thrown into the water when a wave struck and capsized the boat. Derwin was struck on the head by the boat and was unconscious when taken to shore. The Jap jumped into the ocean with his clothes on and rescued the boys by placing them on the boat, where they remained until taken off by parties in a boat.

The boys live in Stockton and are at Seal Beach with Harry Morgan, father of the Morgan boy.

SENATE REVOLT CRISIS FACED BY WILSON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Despite the decree of the Democratic caucus postponing until next session the immigration and the corrupt practices bill, the Senate is to be faced with a vote on both measures before adjournment. President Wilson and his lieutenants will oppose this and a party revolt is imminent.

Senator Borah yesterday shifted the discussion of the shipping bill to the subject of immigration and urged action on that measure speedily.

Sensor Ashurst, Democrat, of Arizona, supported Senator Borah. He declared:

Backs Borah

"The caucus does not bother me; I am a free man. It is useless to talk about a caucus binding me on a matter upon which I am pledged to my people. I demand a vote on this bill."

President Wilson does not want the immigration bill brought up until after election. He fears the political effect of a veto of the literacy test, and if consistent he must veto the measure when it reaches him with that test in it.

Neither do the President's campaign managers want the corrupt practices act passed.

Owen Bill Drastic

The Owen bill is too drastic to suit those who will be passing around the dough bag of both parties. Chairman McCormick is bending every energy to obtain a huge campaign fund and if this bill becomes law before election he will be handicapped. The Republicans feel the same about it. Both parties are talking valiantly about purity of elections and restriction of contributions, but neither party wants reforms instituted until after this election.

Senator Owen went to the White House yesterday. Upon his return to the capital the senator still was insisting that he would move to take up his bill regardless of the action of his party's steering committee and caucus.

STATE OUGHT TO SEND BIGGEST MAN TO U. S. SENATE him personally. He is a man for the nation to be proud of."

In discussing the preparedness situation, Stephens said that as a member of the naval committee of the House of Representatives he asked an admiral how many battleships would be needed to defeat the entire Pacific fleet. The admiral answered, "One."

"This coast will never get its share of the navy until we get a navy big enough to divide," said he. "We should send men to Washington who will fight to the end, who will get what they go for. Gov. Johnson is such a man. He does not believe in war, but he does believe in adequate preparedness."

"He believes in a preparedness that will keep our boys at home. He believes in an industrial and social preparedness as well, in the betterment of human kind. He is the biggest governor this state ever had, and no governor in this country today is his equal."

"He is a national character. Every newspaper in all of this land knows of Gov. Johnson. Not two per cent of the newspapers of the United States ever heard of either of his opponents."

Geographical Question.

"If all other things were equal, I should say the United States senator this year should come from Los Angeles, but it is not a question of geography. We must have a man big enough to work for the whole state. Do you know that each of seven states of the Union have their two senators from the same city, and that ten others have their senators from the same county or adjoining counties. Twenty-seven states pay absolutely no attention to the question of geography in selecting their senators."

"What Mr. Bishop has told you of the methods used at Sacramento when the railroad controlled the legislature is absolutely true. I was sent as a committee member from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to try to get a bill through allowing the annexation of San Pedro to Los Angeles. Legislators told me that I would have to get the consent of Walter Parker and Jere Burke, the railroad political representatives. I saw Parker. Parker told me there was no use as he had orders not to let the bill go through. The railroad can't control legislation at Sacramento today."

Stephens declared that the splendid railroad commission as organized and conducted under the Johnson administration saves the people of California $7,000,000 a year.

In closing he urged that Republicans give their support to Gov. Johnson for the nomination for senator.

Former Lieutenant Governor A. J. Wallace, who was to speak last night, was unable to be present.

300,000 MEN TO AID ALLIES ARE FURNISHED BY INDIA, SAYS REV. HUNTER

Presbyterian Church Is Scene
Of Interesting Lecture
On War Conditions

"India and the War," was the topic of an address delivered last night in the Presbyterian church by Rev. Stanley A. Hunter, who spent two years as a teacher in Ewing College, at Allahabad under the North India Presbyterian Mission.

"Three hundred thousand soldiers have been furnished to the allies by India," he declared. "Her loyalty has surprised the world but those who knew her best were sure that in time of danger the seditionists would be repudiated by the sober thinking element in the population. Part of the seditionist propaganda has been carried on from California and in the session trial of April 1915 letters written from this state by revolutionaries were among the exhibits offered."

100 Arrested

"On one night in Lahore over 100 were arrested and a local outbreak was nipped in the bud. It was said that these men had every foreign home marked for slaughter so that the country rejoiced that the police learned of the danger in time to avert serious trouble. This was about the only plot of serious import which has been unearthed since the start of the war, so we are safe in assuming that India is quiet and that the unrest is not serious."

"Lord Hardinge, the last Viceroy, exercised great clemency and pardoned nineteen of the offenders who had been sentenced to death, allowing only six to be executed. This act of mercy was wise, as the results show."

Deprecates Sympathy

"In an interview the day of his return a few weeks ago by a correspondent of the New York Times in London, he deprecated the sympathy which Americans extend to revolutionaries from India in this country. Others have charged that they misappropriate funds entrusted to them and are unworthy representatives of India."

"The best thought is represented by such men as Rabindranath Tagore they say, who has been knighted by King George and is now Sir Rabindranath. He has been lecturing in Japan to great audiences and is now on his return journey by way of this country. He was due to land this month in San Francisco."

Tagore Beloved

"Tagore is beloved in India and the land is proud of his having won the Nobel prize for literature. This $40,000 awarded him he did not use selfishly, but turned over to his boys' school in Bhopal, Bengal, whither Rev. C. F. Andrews, an English missionary of the Church Missionary Society and a great admirer of Tagore, went a year or so ago as a teacher after his resignation. The poet comes from a family famous in Bengal. He has shown business ability in managing a big estate and has at various times edited four magazines, as well as managed a school, so that he may be called an all around man in every sense. His mystical poetry has charmed many European readers, for he writes English as a master. He is not a Christian, but he is a theist and his message will militate against idolatry and the materialistic in India's religion."

Interest in Sepoys

"His type of mind is far distant from the Indian sepoy's, but just now it is the sepoy in which the world is most interested. When the first expeditionary force sailed through the Suez Canal escorted by Japanese battleships, and landed at Marseilles there was a great burst of enthusiasm throughout the world of the allies. The Indian troops gave a good account of themselves, although their nerves were not strong enough for the heavy bombardments, and the cold winter of France depressed them. The little Gurkhas from the Himalayas were used to cold, however, and they were especially feared by the Germans. The Gurkha is unsurpassed when it comes to crawling at night to the enemy's lines. It was noted that many came into hospitals with their left hands badly wounded from boldly grasping bayonets of the foe that way as they went about their death dealing work with the terrible sword or curved dagger, called the kukri. One Gurkha at the start of the war, impressed with its magnitude, exclaimed to an officer: 'Oh, Sahib, all war is good, but this war is heaven.'"

"Not Where God Is"

"Another, however, after a few weeks' experience of it is said to have remarked to a surgeon as he was dying: 'They do not fight where God is.'"

"For the first time in its long and varied history, the Indian army has been bent to Christian influence. Although the word came to the Y. M. C. A. from the New York headquarters to retrench financially at the outbreak the authorities in India had the courage to walk by faith and disobey orders. They planned instead a big expansion and, from the New York office has come the sinews of war. Dr. Mott has done wonderful work in marshalling men and money for the great campaign. It is said that he has been instrumental in raising half a million dollars for the work 200 secretaries are doing among the soldiers and the prisoners in all the warring countries. With the Indian troops sailed thirty-seven picked men, Indians and Americans, to act as Y. M. C. A. secretaries. One was a graduate of Ewing College."

Write Letters

"These men write letters for sepoys who are illiterate, provide them with Indian delicacies when ill, play phonographs for them in hospitals, and cut

LIFT FLOUR PRICES IN LOS ANGELES ON ALL GRADES

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—Flour prices have been raised again by local millers, and as a result the trade has to pay an additional 20 cents a barrel for all family grades. Bakers' flours also have advanced, and a large number of feeds are selling for from 5 to 10 cents more a hundred pounds, including the following: Rolled barley, ground barley meal, re-cleaned barley, yellow and white corn, cracked corn, feed meal, Egyptian corn; milo maize, wheat, cracked wheat, white and red oats, and rolled oats.

White and yellow cornmeal, graham flour, rye flour and entire wheat flour have also experienced an advance in values. The higher prices have not occasioned any surprise, as those who have kept in touch with the wheat markets have been in a position to expect an advance in flour prices here. The top of the market has not been reached yet, either, in the opinion of a great many of the Los Angeles men, and they are anticipating further sharp advances almost any time.

"THE PEOPLE OF THE WHOLE STATE"

Hughes as governor "went back to the people" with the issues that concerned them.

Two of his hardest fights, for the race-track gambling measure and for the direct primary, he definitely took out upon the road. At county fairs, at whatever places and by whatever means he could reach the people, he showed the average voter how the issues at stake concerned the average citizen of New York.

In every issue of his campaign, every law he proposed, every policy he advocated, Hughes showed a consistent tendency to solicit the opinion of the people of the whole state.

There is evidence that he sometimes received advice concerning less public, more diplomatic, and more usual means of getting bills through legislatures. He met such advice with repeated assertions that his allegiance was to "the people of the whole state," and that the measures if passed must be passed as a result of their convictions.

The appeal was always justified. For the measures presented to the people were inspired and founded on consideration for the welfare of the average citizen.

The prohibition of professional race-track gambling was based on a conviction of the need of protecting the citizenship body against the special privileges of the gambler. The insurance reform laws aimed to protect the rights of the little money man against the special privileges of the speculator. The regulation of public service corporations aimed to make profit in public service dependent upon the assumption of public responsibility. It insured the private citizen's right to establish standards and to secure the service specified. For the first time in the history of the state, the private citizen was given, by this regulation, somebody to appeal to if he was not getting a square deal.

In many minor fights the issue was essentially the same; in the prosecution of the ice trust, alleged to be receiving regularly 1 per cent profits and to be controlling the sale of all the ice in New York City; in the insurance and banking reform measures with their protection of the small investor; in the factory and labor and compensation laws protecting the health and the rights of the workman.

The direct primary principle as advocated by Hughes aimed to secure the sovereignty of the average citizen's vote against difficulties which would have challenged a less bold administrator and a less courageous "reformer." He lost the issue, and the fight for an adequate direct primary in New York, as in most other states, is yet to be won. When it is won, it will be on the Hughes foundation.

In all these measures Hughes was simply carrying out the issues of the campaign in which he was elected. They were the same issues as those of the insurance investigation: the limitation of the arbitrary methods of big business and the elimination of the baneful influence of big business upon politics.

His appeal to the people was not a trick of the canny politician. It was no populist flavor. Throughout his whole official and judicial career, it has been most evident that in governmental creed Hughes is a conservationist. He believes in the philosophy of government, and he would be the first to condemn the short-cuts advocated by the enthusiastic reformer.

But he also believes in the possibility of an intelligent popular vote. He believes in the political education of the voter upon the issues that concern him—if democracy is to be assured. This quality, perhaps above all others, will make him a national executive of peculiar power and vision. As President, just as when he was governor, his allegiance will be "to the people of the whole state." And the roots of this allegiance are in the principles of democracy established in 1776, not in any latter-day populism.

We Should Worry

It is possible to use what seems to be slang without being slangy. If there is something to worry about, we should worry.

Australia now has most rigid restrictions against the admission of aliens and pugilists are warned that if they arrive without passports they will be barred.

Lots of pugilists go from this country to Australia and they are careless persons who do not read the papers much. It would be just like them to go without passports. Then they would be sent back.

Logic

Senator La Follette says that the logic of the whole world is against preparedness on the part of this country.

Singularly enough he is not allowed to monopolize this opinion, Henry Ford insisting on a fifty-fifty split.

Hard Drinking

A doctor says that in hot weather one should drink not less than eight glasses of water a day.

Inconsistent

Hetty Green used to be afraid that somebody would poison her, yet she haunted the cheap restaurants and took chances.

Amnesty

Every once in a while a bunch of Villistas are given amnesty.

This means not that they must lay down arms, but must point the same in another direction, and if toward an American soldier, nobody makes much fuss.

Carranza's Influence

Carranza seems to have considerable influence with himself.

After thinking over the terms of agreement he drew up, he concludes them to be quite acceptable.

Grave Discussion

In a California town, long settled and populous, there is discussion as to whether the establishment of a cemetery shall be permitted. The town never has had such an adjunct. As it is not believed that residence there assures eternal abiding in this mortal frame, there must have been some way of disposing of the late lamented.

Viewed from the angle of neutrality, it does not seem fair to have dumped deceased upon the property of any neighboring municipality. No provision for cremation has been set up locally.

The only fair course in the circumstances would be for this happy community to bury its own dead, as is the custom elsewhere, or to live forever, if the people like the place well enough.

Humor

When the paragrapher pert with ennuil has to yawn, He braces up and makes us smile.

By writing "John" as "Jawn."

Under Suspicion

The most respectable of citizens may bring himself into suspicion by reporting that he has been robbed.

Apparently the rest of the effort of the police in any city is to make him prove that he did not thump himself with a gasp, tear his coat and roll in the dust for the purpose of casting obloquy upon some worthy footpad.

Warned by this tendency, the discreet person will either have witnesses at hand while being robbed, or decline in any manner to become party to the transaction.

Time to Reduce

Isn't it time for the price of gasoline to come down?

The advance has covered nicely all the late Rockefeller contributions to charity and science and it is feared by the envious, has left the gentleman a margin.

Editorials By Register Readers

Editor Register:—On the eve of the greatest labor crisis in the nation's history, the threatened strike of 400,000 railroad workers on 225 railway systems of the United States, the question of the public ownership of railroads demands attention.

Let me present a few facts concerning government ownership.

Sixty-nine nations already own and successfully operate all or a considerable proportion of their railroad systems. All but nine countries now own their railways. All but Algeria, Cuba, Honduras, Paraguay, Salvador, Uruguay, Great Britain, Spain and the United States. These may be called the "backward nations" so far as railway management is concerned.

Furthermore, the change from private to public ownership has been going on rapidly. Switzerland completed the nationalization of her railways in 1903, Italy in 1905, Japan and Mexico in 1907; even Greece and Guatemala are in the procession—and China too—all three joining in 1909. And so far as we know, no nation that has once nationalized its roads has ever gone back to private ownership.

Government ownership of railways is all but an accomplished fact the whole world over. It is no longer a theory or a dream. It has been a reality in the experience of many nations covering a period of at least a quarter of a century, and carried on under every form of government, and every condition of people.

And what have been the results?

1. The conditions of labor have been improved.

2. Rates have been reduced.

3. The service has been improved.

4. Travel and transportation are less murderous.

5. The railroads are better financed.

6. Vast economies are effected.

7. Railroads are taken out of politics.

8. The general conditions of the country are rendered more stable.

Surely the demands of the railroad brotherhoods for an eight-hour work day and time and a half for overtime are not excessive demands.

With the railroads in private hands, affording chances for the building up of colossal fortunes for individuals, low wages for the employees, and high freight rates for the public, are bound to continue.

If Uncle Sam can run the postal system and give his employees an eight-hour day, why can he not do the same with the railroads?

In spite of federal commissions, rate-controlling boards, conciliation arbitration and mediation committees, the private ownership of railroads is still unsatisfactory.

The owners and employees of railroads still have it in their power to paralyze the industrial system of a great nation, and to imperil the comfort, convenience and happiness of a hundred millions of people.

President Ripley, of the Santa Fe, recently said: "Less than ten years will see the government owning and operating the railroads of the United States."

News From Co. L

NOGALES, Ariz., Aug. 15—Today is another rainy day and we had to eat in our tents, but we don't care anything about that, when we get such a feel as we did tonight. Hot biscuits and butter, steaks smothered in onions, pudding and coffee. You can't beat that in an army camp.

We never get through singing the praises for our chef, John Tervooren and his assistant Slim Jaeger.

Slats Edgar is now with the blacksmith department. There is one thing that ticks Slats—they did not make him change his boarding place.

I happened to drop in the tent of No. 6 this afternoon between showers and our bugologist was busy working over his bugs. He is certainly getting some dandy specimens.

Tonight it was a pretty wet night, but it did not stop the men from going over to the Y. M. C. A. where they know that they can enjoy themselves.

The canteen of the 7th Regiment has been closed up indefinitely. We don't know just when it will open again. We hope that it will not be very long, because it saves us many a trip to town.

Private V. J. Frye was a little particular tonight at retreat. He had on a new pair of shoes. It began to sprinkle a little and Frye began to look for some cover for his new shoes, but it got to raining pretty good before retreat was over. Frye was last seen getting into his tent to change his foot-covering.

There was a little excitement in the Y. M. C. A. tonight. A couple of dog mascots got into an argument. The dogs were put outside to finish, but they had had enough.

Lieut. Ford has made a new improvement in his tent which gives him a little room. He is a good officer and has a good many friends around the camp. We are all with him.

There was a jumping contest at the rifle range the other day which finally narrowed down to Corporal Louis King and Private Pippis. For once the private got a little further than the non-com, as Pippis was a winner in the contest, besting the corporal by about two inches; his leaps being about eighteen feet, with the full uniform. This can be considered a good leap considering the handicap.

We are expecting the big hike pretty soon, but don't know just when we will get it.

Private Mitchell received a box from the Santa Ana lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood yesterday afternoon, filled with magazines, jellies, candy and sugar. It was divided among the men as a gift from the Fraternal Brotherhood. The men will all ways have a warm feeling in their hearts for the lodge.

Squad No. 3 is now called the navy squad. Their leader, Corporal Louis King, an ex-member of the navy, has provided the men with little white caps such as Uncle Sam's Blue Jackets wear.

The chief offender in trying to get rid of his land-legs is Private Charley Stearns.

The first thing that we hear in the morning is King's voice calling "All hands on deck—Swab down the decks." You have to hand it to them, even if they are a little daft on this navy stuff—they always have a neat looking tent.

We have one on Admiral Billy. We have to keep him tied up now. Top Sergeant Pease came near losing the hat cord off his hat the other day for Billy was going for it pretty strong when the Top rescued his hat and cord. The Top and the Lieutenants have issued orders that he be tied up.

We were out to rifle practice again yesterday afternoon and the honor of the highest score goes to Private Bill Ritten. Bill drew 23 out of a possible 25.

Company L is getting along fine under the command of Lieutenant Holderman. The boys are all back of him and are making a good showing in all the inspections that are held in the drills.

Lieutenants Holderman and Ford are constantly getting compliments on the appearance of their company.

There was a good representation of Company L at the services held in the Y. M. C. A. building Sunday night. It was a splendid service. The sermon was preached by the chaplain of the 7th California, Rev. Shaw of San Bernardino. There was also a Bible school to which several of the boys went.

Harbison Not Satisfactory Dry Candidate

In some of the papers of San Bernardino county there appeared recently an article entitled, "Strong Letter from F. A. Leonard on Harbison's Anti-Liquor Record."

This letter was brought out as a reply to an article, "Why Should Mr. Edwards Withdraw?" which was written in behalf of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and which set forth facts connected with the supervisory contest of 1914 when Mr. Harbison's paper "The San Bernardino Sun," was supporting the two "wet" candidates for office.

In his effort to show that Mr. Harbison is satisfactory to the Prohibition party, Mr. Leonard said he had heard the story (and had been told it was a true story), that long prior to Mr. Edwards' candidacy for Congress, two of the higher-ups of the Prohibition party had solicited Mr. Harbison to become their candidate, the inference being that if Mr. Harbison was satisfactory to the "higher-ups" he would be satisfactory to the rank and file of the Prohibitionists.

The important feature of this story which Mr. Leonard heard is, that it is untrue. Mr. Harbison is not satisfactory to the Prohibition party and was not asked to become their candidate. An investigation of this story brings out the facts as set forth in a letter from the two men who interviewed Mr. Harbison prior to the San Diego convention, but after Mr. Edwards had been in the field for weeks. The letter is as follows:

Dear Mrs. Fargo:

On the evening of June 20th we had a conference with Mr. Harbison for the purpose of securing if possible his support of Mr. Edwards' candidacy.

"I am a dry man myself," said Mr. Harbison, "and do not see any need of Mr. Edwards running in the event of my selection."

"Would you accept the Prohibition nomination if offered you?" we asked.

"Yes, gladly," Mr. Harbison replied.

"Would you agree to be the Prohibition nominee if you failed to secure the Republican nomination?" we asked him.

"No," replied Mr. Harbison, "that would be impossible. I am a Republican and could not run against the choice of my party."

"Then the Prohibitionists could not endorse you in view of the possibility of being turned down by you later?" we said.

"But in the event of my nomination by the Republicans will Mr. Edwards withdraw?" asked Mr. Harbison.

"There is absolutely no chance of his withdrawing," we answered, "for he is already in the field and pledged to run. On the other hand, why should you not support Mr. Edwards?" we asked.

"I can hardly be expected to support Mr. Edwards when I am a candidate myself," replied Mr. Harbison, "and in any case there is a gentleman's agreement among the candidates who go before the San Diego convention that they will support the choice of the convention."

"But," we urged, "if a wet man is the selection of the convention, will you support the 'wet' man in preference to Mr. Edwards, the 'dry' man?"

"Well," smiled Mr. Harbison, "this is a stand-pat Republican paper."

We asked the question several times. Mr. Harbison seemed unwilling to answer. When pressed he finally said, "I don't cross any bridges before I come to them."

But let us not forget that Mr. Harbison said earlier in the conversation that there was a gentleman's agreement among the candidates to support the choice of the convention; and that agreement binds him to support a man, even if he is a wet, something which Harbison has done before.

(Signed) E. A. ROWELL.

S. W. GRATHWELL.

There is little need of comment if we sense what that "gentleman's agreement" means. It means that Mr. Harbison went into the conference at San Diego not knowing whether a "wet" or "dry" candidate would be the selection of the conference, but bound to support the choice of the convention whether "wet" or "dry." It means that if Mr. Harbison had not been selected as a candidate for Congress at San Diego he would have again used his paper in support of a wet candidate if such had been selected.

We are told that Mr. Harbison gained the nomination at San Diego by only one vote. In case the candidate opposing him was "wet" this is the situation Mr. Harbison faced: only one vote stood between his posing as a "dry" candidate seeking the "dry" vote, and the possibility of using his paper and influence in the support of a "wet" candidate for Congress.

Prohibitionists do not seek "dry" candidates with no surer foundation than this to represent the Prohibition party.

No, Mr. Leonard, Mr. Harbison is not satisfactory to the Prohibition party, either to the higher-ups, the lower-downs, or the in-betweens.

The constitution of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union pledges its members to work for legal prohibition. It is out of all question that the vote of W. C. T. U. women should be solicited in behalf of a "dry" candidate, who, if he himself had not been the selection of the San Diego conference might possibly now be working to place a "wet" candidate in office.

Surely there are many dry Republicans who would prefer to cast their vote for the Prohibition candidate, Mr. Edwards, than for a candidate who is "dry" or "wet" as circumstances dictate.

PLEASANT GATHERING

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Foutts Scene of Birthday Celebration

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Foutts on South Sycamore street, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Tuesday evening, August 15. This being Mrs. Foutts' birthday, a number of her friends planned a surprise for her. About 7 o'clock a neighbor asked her to come over a few minutes as she had something for her, and during her absence a lady and gentleman called to spend the evening.

Mrs. Foutts was called home, again the door-bell rang, and again, and again, until quite a little company had assembled, each guest bringing beautiful flowers.

The evening was spent in social conversation. In some mysterious way quantities of delicious ice cream and cake, also homemade candies, had found their way to the Foutts' home. These were daintily served by two little neighbor girls, Louise Walker and Mabel Miller.

As the time of departure drew near an earnest prayer was offered by Dr. J. G. Kennedy, and all departed for their homes wishing for Mrs. Foutts many more pleasant birthdays.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Foutts, those present were Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Kennedy, Mrs. S. J. Jackson, an old-time friend; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henderson, Mrs. Mattie Miller, Misses Mary Miller, Mabel Miller and Louise Walker.

Miss Zelma Sturgeon was the general hostess for the N. M. U. club and a few friends last evening at her beautiful home on South Birch street.

The living room was graced with lovely pink dahlias and the evening hours slipped happily away with needlework and reading over old time clippings, which paved the way for jolly reminiscences.

Late in the evening Miss Sturgeon invited the company in to the dining room. The table was centered with a lovely crocheted basket filled with Cecile Brunner roses, heliotrope with its dainty fragrance and sprays of maidenhair fern. The little nut baskets were also crocheted and were topped with fluffy pink tulle bows.

Misses Eileen and Carrie Stafford of Los Angeles were guests of the club.

RECEPTION TO BISHOP

A Pleasant Afternoon Spent Yesterday at Home of Mrs. Robert H. English

Bishop and Mrs. Sanford of Fresno, who are spending their vacation in the Southland and Rev. and Mrs. Richard Whitehouse of Reedley, Cal., who are occupying the E. V. S. Pomeroy home during their absence, were honored guests yesterday afternoon at a delightful reception, given by Mrs. R. H. English at her charming home on South Main street.

About forty were in the company to welcome the bishop, who has charge of the San Joaquin district and beautiful decorations were in place to honor the coming of Mrs. English's guests. In the living room, there was a profusion of fringed pink asters and dainty Cecile Brunner roses, while the library glowed with rich-hued double yellow marigolds.

In the dining room, the mantel was banked with ferns and purple asters harmonized with the room's blue furnishings. The flowers were artistically arranged in baskets, vases and jardiniere, Mrs. English having been assisted in this and other arrangements by the members of the Guild of the Church of the Messiah.

Mrs. William Whitehead stood with Mrs. English as the guests arrived.

During the afternoon, Bishop Sanford made a very pleasant talk along the lines of his work in the diocese.

Late in the afternoon, Mrs. English served several varieties of dainty sandwiches, homemade cakes and tea.

—O—
Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

—Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

WOMEN SEEKING SEATS IN CAL. LEGISLATURE

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 18.—It is not at all improbable that one of the sixteen women running for office in California during the coming election will land a seat in one of the houses of the state legislature. It will be the first time in the history of the state that a woman was ever elected to either house.

Several of the candidates for seats in the lower house seek Democratic nominations, and one, Mrs. Alice P. Woertendyke of South Pasadena, of the sixty-ninth assembly district, seeks three nominations, including the Republican, Democratic and Prohibition.

Katherine Stiering of San Francisco is the Democratic candidate from the thirty-second district. Edith Dow Moulton of Ripon, San Joaquin county, seeks the Republican and Democratic nominations.

Sophie J. Clough is another Democratic aspirant from San Francisco.

NEW FRONT FOR HILL HARDWARE STORE, PLAN

East Fourth street is to have another modern store front.

S. Hill and Son will make improvements in their business building at 213 East Fourth, costing about $1200. Contract for the same has been awarded to R. C. McMillan and the improvement work will start next week.

Modern plate-glass windows will be installed, one of the features of the improvement being the enlargement of the west shop window. A part of the solid brick wall of the east entrance to the Neill hall will be torn out to make room for the enlarged shop window. A round corner will be made, making it possible for people to see the display of wares in the window before they reach the front of the store.

The new front will correspond with that of the room adjoining on the west.

Extensive repairs are also being made on the rear work shop of the firm. The estimated cost of this work is $600.

SPERRY FLOUR

Its uniform high quality has made it the flour standard of the West. If you want to make good bread

Try This Sperry Bread Recipe

3 1/2 lbs. (3 1/2 quarts) Sperry Flour
1 quart water
6 level tablespoons sugar
2 cakes compressed yeast
2 level teaspoons salt
Dissolve yeast, sugar and salt in water at 80° F. Sift flour three times and warm slightly; make well in center of flour, add liquid; mix gradually, adding shortening. Knead thoroughly to soft elastic dough; keep in warm place, and allow to rise to 2 1/2 times its volume; punch down; allow to rise again; mold into loaves; when double in size, bake in medium quick oven at 350° F. For five-hour bread the temperature of the dough should be maintained at 60° F. For overnight bread set dough at 75° F., and use only one cake of compressed yeast.

This will make four loaves weighing about 1 lb., 4 oz. each, and there are 55 of these loaves in a sack of Sperry Flour—the flour that enables the beginner, as well as the experienced housewife to produce good things to eat because it is the one flour that never varies, each sack is like every other sack.

HUGHES NEUTRAL IN CALIFORNIA POLITICS ROW ROWELL TOLD

Nominee Announces He Will Remain Out of Sectional Mix-ups

ASHLAND, Ore., Aug. 18.—Charles E. Hughes told Chester Rowell yesterday that he would not interfere in the factional fight in progress in California between the so-called "Old Guard" and the Progressive Republicans. His decision followed a hearing he gave Rowell while traveling southward across Oregon yesterday. Last night the Republican presidential candidate was in California, well on his way to San Francisco.

Except for a few mountain villages up among the pine trees where necessary stops are made, the candidate had a straight thirty-six hours' rest in the train before reaching San Francisco.

During a part of this long ride he has had poured into his ears a scathing indictment of the Crocker-Keessling "old-guard" juggernaut of California.

Tells Situation

Chester Rowell of Fresno, well known to Chicago Progressive forces as in rather dispassionate narrative, laid the situation before the candidate. Rowell is Progressive national committeeman for California and a member of the Republican national campaign committee. He was picked by Hughes personally in an effort to reunite the party in California, as Harold Ickes was named from Illinois to give the Progressives an opportunity to come back.

The Hughes program, however, has failed. Gov. Hiram Johnson, Roosevelt's running mate four years ago, has not been invited to attend Hughes' meetings in San Francisco, Los Angeles or San Diego.

On the other hand the Crocker-Keessling spokesmen have stated that Johnson cannot attend any of these meetings except as a private individual and taking his chances of securing a seat out in the audience. Hughes was told. Rowell has not been invited to attend any of the meetings, either.

The old guard is out in open defiance of Mr. Hughes' efforts at reunifying the party. They declare openly they do not want harmony. A subterranean threat also has been made by some to support Wilson in preference to Hughes if the Republican candidate mixed in the fray in a manner not desired by the old guard.

The cause of the bitter strife is laid to Governor Johnson, who is seeking both the Progressive and Republican nomination for United States senator.

Johnson Stands Pat

Johnson refuses to withdraw as the Progressive candidate while seeking the Republican nomination. He will get the Progressive nomination and will make a fight as a Progressive if he is beaten in the Republican primary. This has rolled the Crocker people to a state of frenzied hatred of Johnson and Rowell.

Johnson, meantime, is stumping the state in a whirlwind campaign, seeking the senatorial nomination and speaking for Hughes at each meeting. Because of the Progressive movement in the state, there are about 300,000 nonpartisans and 60,000 Progressives who are debarred from participation in the Republican primary. There are some 400,000 regular Republicans and to secure the senatorial nomination Johnson must get a majority of these.

Booth

It happens that the regulars have a possibly clean candidate for senator in Willis H. Booth of Los Angeles. The real backers of Booth are William H. Crocker, Republican national committeeman, and Francis V. Keessling, Republican state chairman. Hughes has been informed that at the meeting of the national committee in

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS OF CALIFORNIA, TAKE THIS ADVICE!

San Francisco, Cal.—"When my daughter was 19 she had the most extreme form of female trouble. I gave her 12 bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; it cured her. She has never had any return of the trouble.

"I have taken Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for years to keep my bowels regular. One pill a week was all I had to take. I am 73 years old and attribute my splendid health to this."—Mrs. E. BLEVIN, 624 Castro St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a true friend to women in times of trial and at times of pain when the organs are not performing their functions. For headache, backache, hot flashes, catarrhal condition, bearing-down sensation, mental depression, dizziness, fainting spells, lassitude or exhaustion women should never fail to take this tried and true woman's medicine. It is a remedy that any ailing woman can safely take because it is prepared from native roots and herbs.

It's not a secret remedy for all the ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Sold in either liquid or tablet form.

Sick people are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential.

Send three dimes (or stamps) for mailing charges to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and enclose this notice and you will receive a copy of the "Common Sense Medical Adviser," all charges prepaid.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are unequalled as a Liver Pill. Smallest easiest to take. One tiny Sugar-coated Pellet a Day. Cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

Washington Crocker resisted all harmony and reunited party talk. He said it was piffle and begged the Republican managers not to attempt to reunite the party in California.

Rowell's plea to Hughes yesterday was to try during his stay in California to adjust the factional fight.

Declines to Interfere

After the situation had been made clear to him, Hughes declined flatly to interfere. He told his callers that as candidate for president it was not his purpose to interfere in any state primary fights as between factions. He suggested that they fight out their local differences and the local electorate determine their candidates, which is real home rule, and then all get together for the national ticket, if the historic Republican principles mean anything to them, which he thought they did.

Crocker and a number of friends boarded the train on the California border late last night and gave Hughes their side of the story. They have invited some 200 former Progressives to sit on the platform at Hughes' meeting, but not Johnson and Rowell.

Hughes talked of the tariff and national honor yesterday to several crowds assembled en route.

"Must Drive Ahead"

"We must have a good drive ahead," said the nominee at Grants Pass, defining dominant Americanism, "and there is no reason why in this country with its ability and natural resources we should not have permanent prosperity. To do that we must look after our own. This is what I mean by dominant Americanism, able to take care of American interests.

"In addition to that we want also—and you cannot have much of a nation without it—an intense regard for our national honor and disposition to maintain it. I am solicitous to preserve peace and good will.

"We want the friendship and good will of all the nations of the world. They are very friendly disposed to us. But if we are to keep out of trouble we must respect ourselves and make others respect us."

At Roseburg

At Roseburg, Hughes said: "You must have loyalty to the flag and unswerving loyalty to the principles of our institutions. You must have a keen appreciation of what American opportunity means and what you must do to preserve it.

"You must preserve it by encouraging every American achievement. You must be sure we do not leave unused the national powers which will give us national prosperity."

HARBISON GIVES POINTERS ON LAW AS TO PRIMARIES

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 18.—"There is a wide range of misunderstanding with reference to the operation of the primary law this year," declares R. C. Harbison, editor of the San Bernardino Sun and candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in this district, after having spent some time in campaigning through the counties of the Eleventh District.

"The difficulty is that citizens do not discriminate between the partisan primary law, which applies to nominations for United States senator, congressmen and legislative offices, and the non-partisan primary law which applies to judges and supervisors. The misunderstanding seems largely to have developed along this line: That citizens think the non-partisan method, by which the two high candidates for a local office go into the November contest, applies also to the partisan offices."

"Let it be well understood that there are now two distinct classes of offices under the California law. One class is designated as non-partisan and it includes judges and county officers. For all these the non-partisan primary law applies, and the two candidates who have the highest vote in the August primary will be candidates and the only candidates for these offices in November.

"But for the so-called partisan offices an entirely different method applies. The partisan offices are United States senator, congressman, and legislative offices—senators and assemblymen. For these partisan offices each party makes its own nomination—just one nomination and the 'high man' in the primary held by each party will be its nominee. Republicans in their primary will vote for candidates for United States senator, congressman and for the Legislature. Progressives, Democrats, Prohibitionists and Socialists will do the same, although most Progressives have registered as Republicans and not many candidates have petitioned on to the Progressive ballot.

"Each of the parties will therefore select one candidate—not two—to represent it in the November election. The fact that in some, perhaps in several instances, the same candidate may be nominated by more than one party in no way interferes with the theory of the situation.

"This may seem to be a rather rudimentary political discussion, but I have discovered that not a few people have confused the two primaries. Even attorneys and officials have talked of the 'two high men' for United States senator and for congressman, when of course the Republicans will nominate but one, and the other parties will do likewise."

CAMPER HAS BULLET THROUGH HIS THIGH

ANAHEIM, Aug. 18.—G. T. Ingram, Walter Kern, Lee Mathews and Ben Christlieb left Anaheim Saturday evening for Mt. Whitney and around the mountain district of Lake Owens for a fishing and hunting expedition.

One of them having a 22-caliber gun, had just shot a squirrel and reloaded his gun and thinking the trigger to be down, accidentally shot Christlieb through the thigh, about two inches above the knee, the bullet entering from the back. They were about twenty miles in the mountains and had to pack Christlieb. He was taken to Lone Pine and put on the train for Anaheim. Christlieb resides on Orangewood avenue.

FIRE FIGHTERS TO BE GUESTS OF SANTA ANA NEXT WEEK

Three Hundred Expected In Party Which Will Stop Here Saturday of Next Week

Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs and their families will be shown a few of the beauty spots of Orange county one week from tomorrow. There will probably be 300 people in the party.

The fire fighters will assemble in San Diego next week for their big convention and will stop over in Santa Ana on their return from the convention. They will travel by special train. They will arrive here at 3:30 and will take the train at Fullerton two hours later.

The party will be met at the Santa Ana depot by automobiles and taken for a two-hour spin through the groves and orchards of the county.

Machines have already been promised for 150 people. More machines are needed and Secretary Metzgar is today sending out postal cards to auto owners asking them to contribute their machine and services for the auto trip.

It will be an excellent opportunity to boost Orange county, and autoists who can place machines at the disposal of the secretary should inform him early next week, so that he may make his plans accordingly.

Fire Chief Jackson and other members of the local fire department will give their comrades attention while they are here.

The visitors will be supplied with oranges and it is understood that residents of Anaheim are arranging to serve delicious punch as they visit those cities.

$1800 AWARDED TO WIDOW FOR DEATH OF SON

Mrs. Nellie M. Andrews of Buena Park has been awarded a death benefit of $1800 by the State Industrial Accident Commission as compensation for the death of her son, Wellington O. Andrews, who was killed in the oil fields at La Habra April 26.

Young Andrews was employed on the Standard Oil Emory lease as a well driller and was working with three other men, when a chain broke, releasing a huge wrench, which swung about and struck Andrews on the head, fracturing his skull. The three other men were knocked down and injured, but not seriously.

Mrs. Andrews resides at Buena Park with three other sons.

FIVE AEROPLANE COMPANIES MAY FORM BIG MERGER

Plan Standardization of All American Machines; San Diego to Have Plant

The following from the San Diego Tribune, following the recent announcement of the Wright Aeroplane Company and the Glenn L. Martin Company, is of interest:

"A gigantic merger of five of the greatest aeroplane establishments in the United States is about to be consummated, according to reports received in local aviation circles yesterday. The merger is said to have two objects, the standardization of all aeroplanes, seaplanes and flying-boats built in the country, and to meet the stiff competition of foreign aeroplane builders following the close of the European war.

"The companies interested include the Wright Aeroplane Company, the Glenn Martin Aeroplane Company, Curtiss Aeroplane Company and the latter company's present two subsidiaries, among them the Burgess Company of Marblehead, Mass.

"With the development of the North Island military aviation school, where, according to plans outlined by the government, more than 2000 army, national guardsmen and civilian aviators will be trained within the next twelve months, a large manufacturing plant for aeroplanes will be built at San Diego by the consolidated companies. Important announcements along these lines are expected soon from Glenn L. Martin, Glenn Curtiss and other influential American aeroplane manufacturers. Martin is now in the East conferring with Curtiss regarding the proposed merger.

MOON GETS OUT OF JAIL ON BAIL PENDING AN APPEAL

Ultimate Chance of Escaping
Serving Sentence Is Considered Slight

F. L. Moon, brother-in-law of Claus Spreckels of Coronado, got out of jail yesterday afternoon on $250 bail.

He had served thirty-one hours of a ten-day sentence for speeding sixty miles an hour.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock Judge West granted the writ of habeas corpus so that Moon's attorneys can perfect their appeal. The statement on appeal is to be presented at 10 o'clock, Aug. 24, to Judge West. Moon continues free on $250 bail until that time.

The indications are that Moon's attorneys are going to make a fight as long as the law allows them to do so to prevent Moon from serving the sentence. The case is already in the superior court, and it is more than likely to go to the appellate court.

Attorney Clyde Bishop stated that if Moon and his friends desire to take advantage of all the delays of the law and make a fight to the last ditch, the chances are that it will be the last of October before Moon serves the rest of his ten-day sentence.

It was Bishop who got Moon out of jail yesterday. He went before Judge West in the superior court with a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. He alleged that he had taken an appeal for Moon from the sentence of ten days imposed by Justice Cox, but that Cox had refused to fix bail pending the outcome of the appeal. Bishop's statements to the court indicated that he had no expectation that the appeal in the lower run would get rid of the sentence that is hanging over Moon.

Judge West fixed bail at $250, and set the hearing of the petition for 2 o'clock this afternoon. Bishop said Cox had told him that he couldn't get Moon out of jail, and he proposed to and did show him he could.

Moon's bail was put up by Walter H. Dupee, polo king of Coronado, who came here an hour or two after jail was fixed. Moon, Dupee and Attorney Shreve of San Diego went to Los Angeles and spent the night at the Alexandria. This morning one of the Los Angeles papers quotes Moon as saying that Justice Cox "had it in for him." That is a statement that Cox resents strenuously. He seems to feel that Justice Cox, like death, loves a shining mark.

"It is no affair of mine if this man Moon is related by marriage to John D. Spreckels or any other millionaire," said Cox. "He drove an automobile sixty miles an hour on the public highway in Orange county, and any man who does that ought to be sent to jail. I believe that it is my duty to send these sixty-mile-an-hour speed-bugs to jail, and I am going to do it. Moon is no exception. He just happens to be the first one. I am going to keep showing the limit down. After a time, I will send those to jail who go fifty miles an hour, and if that doesn't stop this crazy speeding, I'll send them to jail for going forty miles an hour. And, say, if that doesn't stop it, I'll send 'em to jail for going thirty-five."

SAYS L. A. NEEDS TWO MORE DIVORCE JUDGES

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—That at least two more judges in Los Angeles county should be assigned to divorce cases, which in 1905 totaled 957 and in 1915 reached the alarming total of 2406, "an increase utterly unjustified by the gain in population," is the assertion of Dr. Frank M. Moody of Chicago, executive secretary of the International Committee on Marriage and Divorce.

Dr. Moody is at the Hotel Clark. He is here gathering additional statistics with which to emphasize the campaign which he and his conferees hope to see terminate during the December session of Congress in the adoption of a federal amendment to the constitution which, after ratification by three-fourths of the states, will make possible the passage of uniform marriage and divorce laws.

"This county," declared the divorce authority last night, "is sorely in need of two more judges for divorce cases."

Dr. Enoch, phone 602W, 411½ Main.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

COUNTY TO PAY $27,000 FOR INTEREST ON STATE ROAD

State Controller Sends Statement For Collection For Two Years

Numerous factors, many of them beyond the control of the Board of Supervisors, seem to be working together by coincidence toward preventing any lowering of the tax rate this year.

The most recent factor that has developed came today in a notice from State Controller Chambers that Orange county this year will have to dig up $27,375.67 for interest for state highway funds expended in this county. That means that the state highway interest levy will have to be about three cents higher than it was last year.

Last year the payment to the state was $14,912.70. That payment was for interest up to July 1, 1915. The saving feature in the statement made by the state controller for the present year is that the payment of $27,375.67 demanded is for two years' interest, from July 1, 1915, to July 1, 1917. County Auditor Jerome has not been advised as to why the state this year should ask for two years of interest. He has written to the state controller for information on the subject.

The statement shows exactly how much was spent each month upon the state highway in this county. It goes back to the period when construction work was going on.

Will Is Filed

A will that consists of about twenty-five words was filed for probate today by Attorneys Simms & Fulwider of Los Angeles. It is the will of Albert S. Collins, who died here on August 4. It is scrawled upon a piece of paper that had been used for computation of figures of some kind. The will leaves the entire estate to a brother, Attorney Edgar G. Collins of Lafayette, Ind., excepting $5 to a daughter, Lida Collins Marion of San Diego.

Allowed for $3000

A claim for $10,000 put in against the estate of David Hewes by Merritt J. Reid has been allowed by the executors for $3000. Reid's claim was for special services, including business investigations and reports. Another claim filed yesterday showing the claim approved by the executors is the claim of Mills College for $10,000 with interest at five per cent from 1906, at which time the late millionaire pioneer gave the college a donation of $10,000. Hewes' estate was appraised at $1,247,333.07.

Suit for Divorce

Pearl Martin Nelson has brought suit for divorce against Harold W. Nelson. Head & Marks are attorneys for the plaintiff. The couple married at Rialto in February, 1914, and lived together one month and fourteen days. Desertion and non-support are alleged.

Order is Given

Today Judge West signed an order allowing the First Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene of Santa Ana to mortgage its property for $1100. Morris A. Cain appeared as attorney for the petitioner.

For Foreclosure

Suit to foreclose a $1200 mortgage has been brought by C. E. Nininger against R. D. Easley. Morris A. Cain is attorney for the plaintiff.

Contest His Claim

On the ground that his claim was not presented to the court for approval within the time required by law, Col. S. H. Finley may not be paid $978.70 that he seeks from the estate of Mrs. Gertrude Finley Pusey. Finley is executor of the estate. The question as to whether or not the will, under which Finley is a devisee, is legal is being fought out in the courts. If it is broken, H. P. Pusey of Oregon City, Ore., will get half the estate. It is Pusey who has entered a contest of Col. Finley's claim. The Colonel put in a claim for $978.70, which amount he stated was due on a note signed by Mrs. Pusey on February 2, 1914. Attorneys C. D. Latourette of San Francisco and Williams & Rutan of Santa Ana allege that the claim was not presented within the time prescribed by law.

Suing on a Lien

The National Cornice Company has brought suit against Harry W. Wilcox for $417.35 upon a mechanic's lien put upon a building, the Casino, at Anaheim Landing.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

STAGE DRIVER IS ACCUSED PASSING WORTHLESS CHECK

Man Who Is Charged With Shooting Ruiz Is Arraigned
Before Cox

Fred Miller, driver of a stage between Los Angeles and San Diego, was arrested in Los Angeles last night on a charge of giving a no-fund check in Santa Ana. According to the complaint, Miller obtained some automobile tire casings from William Pennock, proprietor of the Ideal Tire Shop in Santa Ana, and gave Pennock a check for $39.34 in payment. The check was on the Moneta avenue branch of the Los Angeles Home Savings Bank. It was signed "Louis Miller," by Fred Miller, trustee. The check came back marked "no funds." Pennock swore to a complaint charging Miller with issuing a no-fund check.

Arraign Hernandez

Eugenio Hernandez, accused of shooting Edward Ruiz, was arraigned on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. Under Sheriff Iman swore to the complaint. The preliminary examination was set for Sept. 14. Ruiz, who was shot four times, is still alive, but is blind. By an X-ray one of the bullets in his head is located near the man's spine at the base of the skull.

Answer Is Filed

Attorney Dick Harding has filed an answer and cross-complaint in the suit brought by J. A. Benjamin against Louis Jacober for $116.24 rent. The cross-complaint alleges that Benjamin "by smooth talk" got Jacober to rent some land. Jacober says that the land turned out to be infested with devil grass, with the result that Jacober lost his crop. He asks for $148 damages.

COAST FIRE CHIEFS TO MEET AT BIG FAIR

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 18.—The annual convention of the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' Association will be held here next week from Monday to Friday. Several hundred fire fighters from the various cities of the coast are expected to attend.

The last day of the convention will be fire chiefs' day at the Panama-California International Exposition. A feature of the final day will be a ball game between teams representing the Los Angeles and San Diego fire departments.

EX-CONVICT BEATEN TO DEATH IN COLORADO

GREELEY, Colo., Aug. 18.—Dan Vonderpool, an ex-convict, today was beaten to death by Conrad Gissek after Vonderpool had attacked Gissek's daughter.

FARGO, N. D., Aug. 18.—Spring wheat growers through both the Dakotas and Minnesota tomorrow will confer here to combine and demand what they considered legitimate prices for their grain.

O. S. Morris of the editorial department of the Non-Partisan Leader, Fargo, will be one of the speakers. The leader is the organ of the Farmers' Party that recently swept North Dakota in a political primary victory. "Each raiser of spring wheat will get a chance to tell of the cost of production of spring wheat," said Morris today. "We shall then add a reasonable profit and arrive at a reasonable price per bushel. When that price isn't paid, farmers will be equipped to store the wheat a sufficient length of time to command the proper price. Discrimination must be stopped."
